We are pleased to present the 11th annual PRFF Adventures in Film Camp, March 7–10, 2019. This immersive educational experience explores the many facets of the filmmaking process – inspiring storytellers of the future to develop their creative, critical, and collaborative skills. It’s the core learning experience of our PRFF Youth Festival.

CAMP OVERVIEW: During the day, participants attend seminars by filmmakers, and hands-on video or animation production workshops in small crews. In the evenings, students enjoy Youth oriented films and director Q&As. Accommodation is available at a local hotel and limited billeting with local Rotarians and bonded host families – meals & full supervision provided.

SELECTING APPLICANTS: Supporting clubs and other organizations can contact their local high schools for potential participants to support, or look at other youth gathering places in the community. Ideal applicants are youth who are motivated to be creative in a collaborative environment.

Please screen students with a written submission or interview, and request a character reference. Participants should be aged 15–24 on Jan. 1, 2019. Facilities are wheelchair accessible

CAMP FEE: The fee covers all film camp costs, not including travel to-and-from Powell River or accommodation (if required). Our staff can help coordinate travel plans. Since the film camp is educational, clubs can use money raised through their own BC Gaming lotteries. The early-bird fee is $450 if received before December 31, and $500 afterwards. Clubs have the option to pay online through Paypal on our website, <http://www.prfilmfestival.ca>.

IMPORTANT DATES: You have until December 31, 2018 to reserve a spot at the early bird rate of $450. Final registration forms and fees are due by January 31, 2018. We will send participants travel info, a camp overview & a packing list. The camp runs March 7–10, 2019, with travel occurring March 7 & 10.

We look forward to hosting creative youth from your community in 2019!

Thank you,

ACCOMMODATION:

Campers spend 3 nights (Thursday through Saturday) in Powell River. The PRFF Adventure in Film Camp is hosted at a local hotel, with a limited number of billets available.

If your preference is possible billeting but are also willing to pay for accommodation, check both boxes:

- Billet for free with a reputable local family (limited availability), or
- Pay for a hotel shared accommodation option – 2 per room – $120 each for 3 nights

Information to help plan travel and packing will be provided closer to the camp. Contact me with any questions at caitlin@prfilmfestival.ca, and we look forward to making great memories in March 2019!

Thanks!
